

Monday 5th June

- 09.30-10.30am Registration, refreshments and exhibition
- 10.30-11.15am Welcome from the President in the City Suite followed by Keynote One - Trends and signals for the library of the future
Miguel Figueroa - Director of the American Library Association Center for the Future of Libraries
- 11.15-11.45am Refreshments and exhibition
- 11.45-12.30pm Parallel Sessions 1
- City Suite Copyright: update on the legislative landscape
Fred Saunderson, Intellectual Property Specialist, National Library of Scotland
- Art Gallery Suite Reimagining the academic library as a learning destination (Learning Commons)
Wendy Pirie, Head of Academic and Learner Services - Heriot Watt University
- Melbourne Suite Linen Hall Library: custodian of Ireland's national and local history
Samantha McCombe, Linen Hall Librarian
- 12.30-1.45pm Networking lunch and exhibition
- 1.45-2.30pm Parallel Sessions 2
- City Suite Exploring the user experience: engaging library users through UX techniques
Leo Appleton, Director of Library Services, Goldsmiths, University of London
- Art Gallery Suite From futuring to innovation: an interactive workshop with Miguel Figueroa
- Melbourne Suite Managing Health Information: case studies
Amanda Minns, Knowledge Services Manager and Katie Edwards, Knowledge Manager, NHS Education for Scotland
- 10 minute break to transfer between rooms
- 2.40-3.25pm Parallel Sessions 3
- City Suite Shining a Light – The Future of Public Libraries in the UK
Research from Carnegie UK Trust presented by Jenny Peachey, Senior Policy Officer
- Art Gallery Suite Hacking a digital future for libraries
Gillian Daly, Head of Policy and Projects, SLIC
- Melbourne Suite Building digital capability for changing roles
Lis Parcell, Subject Specialist: Libraries and Digital Resources, Jisc
- 3.25-3.45pm Refreshments and exhibition
- 3.45-4.15pm Keynote 2 (City Suite) - I blame it on the librarians...
Val McDermid, Author
- 4.15-4.25pm President's closing remarks
- 4.30-5.30pm Scottish Poetry Library workshop on the Belonging Project – Marjorie Lotfi Gill
- 7pm Drinks reception hosted by Liz McGettigan, CILIPS President 2017 followed by dinner at 7.30pm
- 9.30pm After dinner entertainment - 'The Joy of Spines': Graeme Hawley, General Collections Manager at the National Library of Scotland will perform his four-star fringe show about the Library collections.

Tuesday 6th June

9-10am	Evidence Based Advocacy: CILIP Business breakfast for managers, leaders and employers (pre-registration required)
09.15-10.15am	Registration, refreshments and exhibition
10.15-10.30am	CILIPS AGM followed by a welcome from the CILIPS President (including presentation of Student Awards to Adam Dombovari and Laura Anne MacNeil)
10.30-11.25am	Welcome from the President in the City Suite followed by Keynote One - The Road to Copyright Literacy: a journey towards library empowerment Dr. Jane Secker, Senior Lecturer in Educational Development at City, University of London and Chris Morrison, Copyright and Licensing Compliance Officer, University of Kent
11.25-11.45am	Refreshments and exhibition
11.45-12.30pm	Parallel Sessions 1
City Suite	Scotland welcomes refugees - the role of the library in resettlement and inclusion Dr. Konstantina Martzoukou, Post Graduate Programme Leader, Robert Gordon University - iSchool
Art Gallery Suite	Overcoming disability and barriers: Using assistive Technologies in libraries A joint presentation from Craig Mill – CALL Scotland and Edinburgh Libraries award winning Visually Impaired People Project - Jim McKenzie – Lifelong Learning Library Development Leader – Disability Support, Paul McCloskey - Lifelong Learning Strategic Development Officer (Libraries) and Lindsay MacLeod – Project Volunteer
Melbourne Suite	Perfect partnerships: Spotlight on Macmillan in Libraries Craig Menzies, Macmillan Programme Manager
12.30-1.35pm	Networking lunch and exhibition
1.35-2.20pm	Parallel Sessions 2
City Suite	Overcoming barriers in reaching Readers Jacqueline Geekie and Jennifer Horan, Aberdeenshire Libraries and Fiona Renfrew, South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture Libraries
Art Gallery Suite	Spotlight on research - Papers on: Linked Data: opening Scotland's library content to the world (Dr. Diane Pennington, University of Strathclyde) Towards an information literacy strategy for Scotland (Dr. John Crawford)
Melbourne Suite	Informal recognition routes: Learn more about Open Badges – Robert Stewart, Learning and Development Adviser, Digital Learning Team, Scottish Social Services Council
	10 minute break to transfer between rooms
2.30-3.15pm	Parallel Sessions 3
City Suite	Families matter: Innovation in public libraries Every Child a Library Member evaluation (Peter Reid, Professor of Librarianship and Head of Information Management at Robert Gordon University) and DigiDabble, North Ayrshire's award winning family project (Alison McAllister, Systems and Support Officer, North Ayrshire Libraries)
Art Gallery Suite	Fake news and alternative facts – The challenge for information professionals Jenny Foreman, Morag Higginson and Paul Gray, The Information Literacy Community of Practice
Melbourne Suite	If I googled you - what would I find? Managing your digital footprint Nicola Osborne, Digital Education Manager, EDINA
3.15-3.35pm	Refreshments and exhibition
3.35-4.15pm	Keynote 2 (City Suite) - Securing the future: where next for our community in 2018 and beyond? Nick Poole, Chief Executive, CILIP
4.15-4.30pm	President's closing remarks