

CILIPS President

The role of CILIPS President spans a 2 year commitment to the organisation:

Year 1: Vice President;

Year 2: President

The President works in partnership with CILIPS officers in striving to implement the aims and objectives of the organisation as set out in the annual business plan. The President will be a personal member of CILIP and able to provide a visible and supportive presence for CILIPS members.

Duties and responsibilities of the Vice-President and President role

The Vice –President

- Serves as member, ex officio, (non-voting) of the Board (up to 4 meetings each year)
- Selects a thematic focus for his/her Presidential year and annual Conference in keeping with wider CILIP strategic aims;
- Serves as a member of the annual conference planning team to plan the format, speakers and programme to fit with the presidential theme;
- Represents the organisation at meetings, conferences and other events;
- Leads the vote of thanks to the President at the final Trustee Board meeting of the year
- Acts as deputy for the President when s/he is unavailable

The President

- Serves as a member, ex officio, (non-voting) of the Board;
- Promotes CILIPS priorities and key messages;
- Supports the work of Branches and Groups through ‘meet the President’ and other events;
- Uses such events to generate enthusiasm and support among members for CILIPS;
- Work commitments allowing, represents CILIPS at meetings, conferences and other events including the joint Irish Conference (April), CILIP CYMRU Conference (May) and CILIP Conference (July);
- Hosts the annual Conference and Autumn Gathering events including presentation of student awards and honorary membership and hosting of Conference dinner;
- Provides an oral report on Presidential activities during the induction of the incoming President;
- Drafts an introduction to the annual conference printed programme;

- Presents Immediate Past president with Past President's medal

Person specification

In addition to the qualities needed by all trustees the President should possess the following:

- Current membership of CILIP;
- Enthusiasm for the role;
- Strong interest in advocating for the profession;
- Experience of committee work;
- Excellent 'people' skills;
- Ability to devote time to the role

Staff support for the Presidency

CILIPS staff work with the office of President to ensure s/he receives adequate information, background, preparation and training to facilitate work and activities. The Director and Policy and Digital Officer are always available to answer questions and provide assistance.

Specifically CILIPS staff:

Prepare a briefing for the new Vice President;

- Prepare scripts and schedules for events and conferences;
- Advise on policy and practice;
- Assist with duties, programmes and actions