

Programme - 3rd June

09.30-10.30am	Registration followed by coffee and refreshments in the exhibition hall
10.10-10.30am	Meet the team - optional informal networking on the mezzanine level
10.30-11.15am	Welcome from the President in the City Suite followed by Keynote 1 - Women on the shelf: Bravery and the making of a Women's Library – Sue John, Enterprise Development Manager, Glasgow Women's Library
11.15-11.40am	Refreshments in the exhibition
11.40-12.20pm	Parallel Sessions 1
City Suite	Shelf Help: a school librarian on the power of stories to support wellbeing Pamela McLean, St Ninian's High School
Art Gallery Suite	Health literacy – what does this mean to you? – Workshop Marianne Brennan (Alliance Scotland), Katie Edwards (NHS Education Scotland) and Michelle Kirkwood (NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde)
Melbourne Suite	Libraries on the Move – A report on Scotland's mobile libraries Dr. Alyson Tyler, independent researcher
	5 minute break to transfer between rooms
12.25-1.05pm	Parallel Sessions 2
City Suite	Leveraging libraries. Community, open access and Wikimedia Jason Evans, National Library of Wales Wikimedian in Residence and Delphine Dallison, former SLIC Wikimedian in Residence
Art Gallery Suite	Libraries and the campaign to end loneliness Anne Callaghan, Campaign Manager, Scotland
Melbourne Suite	12.25-12.45 An update on the Scottish Reading Strategy Judy Dobbie, Dundee Libraries and Dr. Marianne Bamkin, Birmingham City University 12.45-1.05 An update on the Summer Reading Challenge Sue Wilkinson and Anne Sarrag, The Reading Agency
1.05-2.10pm	Lunch followed by coffee in the exhibition
2.10-2.50pm	Keynote 2 (City Suite) - Hope, Opportunity and Redemption: What books bring to our prisons Erwin James, Editor in Chief of Inside Time and Guardian columnist and contributor
	5 minute break to transfer between rooms
2.55-3.35pm	Parallel Sessions 3
City Suite	Ambition & Opportunity: Journey's end or the start of new beginnings? Fiona Clark (Aberdeen City Libraries), Andrew Olney (Glasgow Life) and Rhona Arthur (North Ayrshire Libraries)
Art Gallery Suite	Diversity and inclusion in the profession Heena Karavadra, University of Leicester and member of CILIP BAME Steering Group
Melbourne Suite	21st Century Reading: Text and data mining skills for Scotland Fred Saunderson and Ines Byrne, National Library of Scotland
3.35-3.55pm	Refreshments in the exhibition
3.55-4.35pm	Keynote 3 (City Suite) - Creating a more tolerant, informed and democratic society through open knowledge - Lucy Crompton-Reid, Chief Executive of Wikimedia UK
4.35-4.45pm	President's closing remarks
7pm	Drinks reception hosted by Yvonne Manning, CILIPS President 2019 followed by dinner at 7.30pm
9.30pm	Announcement of Scotland's Library and Information Professional of the Year 2019 sponsored by Bolinda Digital- shortlist of Fiona Laing, Martina McChrystal and Calum Smith. Followed by musical entertainment.

Programme - 4th June

09.15-10.15am 9.50-10.15am	Registration followed by coffee and refreshments in the exhibition hall Meet the team - optional informal networking on the mezzanine level
10.15-10.30am	CILIPS Annual General Meeting (all delegates welcome, only CILIPS members able to vote)
10.30-10.40am	Welcome from the CILIPS President and presentation of 2018 Honorary Membership to Anna Herron and presentation of Student Awards to Ella Ornstein (RGU) and Natalie Hugo (Strathclyde)
10.40-11.20am	Keynote One - A room is not just a room: The library as public place and why it matters to communities Christian Lauersen, Director of Libraries and Citizen Services in Roskilde Municipality
11.20-11.40am	Refreshments in the exhibition
11.40-12.20pm	Parallel Sessions 1
City Suite	Open Access, Plan S and new models for academic publishing Dominic Tate, University of Edinburgh
Art Gallery Suite	"This House, This Poem," This Library, This Future Asif Khan and Maria Carnegie, Scottish Poetry Library
Melbourne Suite	The app that Bookbug built Ruth Grindley, Scottish Book Trust
	5 minute break to transfer between rooms
12.25-1.05pm	Parallel Sessions 2
City Suite	The Kids Are Alright: Courage, Laughter and Innovation in the School Library Shelagh Toonen, Librarian, Elgin Academy and Scotland's Library and Information Professional of the Year 2018
Art Gallery Suite	Celebrating the value of public libraries – 100 years after the death of Andrew Carnegie Dr. Jenny Peachey, The Carnegie UK Trust
Melbourne Suite	Embedding GDPR within your information and library service David Smith, former Chair of the CILIP Knowledge and Information Management Group and Director of DJS Management Solutions Limited
1.05-2.15pm	Lunch followed by coffee in the exhibition
2.15-2.50pm	Keynote 2 (City Suite) - The joy of digital - Exploring digital making and scholarship to enable innovation in research libraries - Kirsty Lingstadt, Head of Digital Library and Deputy Director of Library & University Collections at the University of Edinburgh.
	5 minute break to transfer between rooms
2.55-3.35pm	Parallel Sessions 3
City Suite	Scotland's academic and national libraries and their engagement with social media Louise Annan, University of Glasgow Library and Stewart Hardy, National Library of Scotland
Art Gallery Suite	Libraries Change Lives - The Mitchell Library and Citizen Advice Bureau working together Rosemary O'Hare and Iain Riley (Glasgow Libraries) and Gwynneth James and Pat McComiskey (Glasgow Central Citizens Advice Bureau)
Melbourne Suite	Shadowing the Carnegie and Kate Greenaway Awards - a practical workshop from the Youth Libraries Group Scotland Vivian French, writer/illustrator and Jennifer Horan, Chair of YLGS
3.35-3.55pm	Refreshments in the exhibition
3.55-4.35pm	Keynote 3 (City Suite) - Innovation: It's a state of mind - Jane Cowell, CEO of Yarra Plenty Regional Library service, Australia
4.35-4.45pm	President's closing remarks